Porto Rican Immigrants on Steamer in Honolulu Harbor Assaulted the Captain.

QUELLED BY CITY POLICE.

Had Nothing to Eat but a Bun Apiece All Day and They Were Ravenous - Destined for Hawaiian Plantations.

Honolulu, Jan. 17, via Victoria, British Columbia, Jan. 21.-A mutiny of Porto Ricans on board an island steamer about to take them to an island of Hawaii tartled Honolulu Wednesday night of this week. The vessel was stopped just as sho was leaving Honolulu Harbor by the action of the immigrants, one of whom drew a knife on the muster of the vessel, Cup-tain Olera. It is stated that the cause of the trouble was the failure to feed the immigrants. The Porto Ricans say that all the food they had on the day of their arrival in Honolulu and up to the time of their departure for Hawaii at about 2 in the after-on was a bun for each. When they were all put aboard the island steamer, which was the Interisland Company's packet, Ke-Au-Hou, they found that the cook had no meal prepared. On the vessel were 138 of the 298 who came the vessel were to divide the control of Peking. It was a matter of some time for the cook to prepare food for such a number, hence the row. The Ke-Au-Hou suddenly dropped her ancher in the harbor a few minutes after she had left the City of Peking, and sig-naled for the police. Deputy Sheriff Chili-ingsworth and several officers went cut to the vessel and restored order

Arrest Was Impracticable. Captain Olsen wanted the man who had rawn the knife arrested and taken ashore, drawn the knife arrested and taken asnore, but the others threatened a general re-volt if this was done, and the man with the knife was allowed to remain on beard. A search was made for the knife, but it could not be found. Two policemen re-could not be found. Two policemen remained aboard the vessel and she proceeded to her destination.

During the row, the immisrants, who were destined to various plantations, became so much mixed that there is fear of more trouble in sorting them out. They had all been given tags bearing their names, numbers and the names of the plantations to which they were to go. In their anger over the lack of food and threatened arrest for one of their number, many of them tore the tags off their ciothes and threw them away.

for one of their number, many or them tore the tags off their ciothes and threw them away.

Four hundred negroes from the United States also arrived on the City of Peking. Some vigorous local objections are beginning to be heard to the importation of negro laborers, as it is feared that some of the criminal experiences of the Southern States may be repeated here if negroes are brought in large numbers.

A row of this sort has already been reported from Walluka-Maul, where pistols are said to have been drawn during a difficulty over some women. Particulars have not yet reached Honolulu.

Honolulu Harbor Filling in.

First Circuit Court Judge Humphreys is ready to resign from the bench as soon as the present vacancies are filled. He says his private practice will not allow him to serve longer, in view of his present financial circumstances.

The United States army transports arriving lately with heavy cargoes found Honolulu Harbor has been filled in, and Captain Slaker, Quartermaster in charge here, says some dredging will have to be done very soon. The big transports frequently touch bottom now in taking their berths, though as the bottom filled in is soft mud, no injury is done. Tides and currents are supposed to have caused this filling in.

The price paid and the future home of the herd, which is one of the biggest and most valuable in the country, have not been made public.

Judge Van Natta, who has been attending the sale of Herefords that has been on here for the past week, admits that he has disposed of the herd, but declines to make the details of the sale public.

Clem Graves of Bunker Hill, Ind., owner of "Dale" show herd of cattle, and was bought by Jesse C. Adams of Mowcaqua, Ill., a well-known breeder.

"Carnation" was bred by the Shadeland Stock Company of Lafayette, Ind. The hidding was exciting, the price advancing by jumps of $100.
